Kokua Awardee: Sione Fa

Tired of the weight-loss/gain-back cycle he had struggled with for years, Sione took the radical step to improve his health and wellness by becoming a contestant on The Biggest Loser television show in 2009. He went from 372lbs to 240lbs in the very public eye of national television.

His journey started out for personal reasons but he soon realized the importance of sharing the tools he had learned with others, especially his Tongan community of Mesa, Arizona.

Some statistics state over 60 percent of Tongans are obese (with some sources claiming even higher obesity stats -- as high as 90 percent). Determined to be at the 'lighter' end of that ratio, Sione managed to strip away over 130 pounds of fat, proving that it's what you do, not what you're born with, that matters when it comes to weight loss.

Sione's goal is to inspire others, especially from his home culture, to combat the ravages of heart disease and diabetes that stem from obesity. In 2010, The Biggest Loser: Where Are They Now episode in 2010 followed Sione as he traveled to Tonga to meet Her Royal Highness Princess Pilolevu and reemphasize the rising epidemic amongst Tongans in the islands and living abroad

This is not a new issue in this community. In the 1990's then-King of Tonga, Tāufa'āhau Tupou IV, started a national weight loss campaign in the 1990's as he battled his own weight of more than 400 pounds.

Intent upon carrying his message, Sione has become a motivational speaker to large groups and corporations such as Target, State Farm, Safelite, Kalil, PF Changs, and Keller Williams. He has appeared on The Today Show and The Jay Leno Show.

For his dedication to health and wellness, and thus to increased longevity and quality of life, we salute Sione Fa.

2013 Guest Artists

James 'Maui Jim' Presbitero

James grew up around music and has played in various Maui venues for over 10 years. His music style ranges from country to Hawaiian.

His kanikapila style of playing is versatile and always fun.

Join Maui Jim at the Kanikapila Tent at Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner

{ Kanikapila is a style of Hawaiian music found in an impromptu jam session, usually happening at a beach or family gathering. }

Kahurangi Maori Dance Theatre

Kahurangi is from Hastings, New Zealand in the territory of the Ngati Kahungunu tribe on the East Coast of the North Island.

Kahurangi performances draw their strength from full voice harmonies, dynamic choreography and passionate dance interpretation of Maori song, dance and heritage.

Join members of the troupe on Saturday at 2:45 at Hale Mana'o.

See their performance on Mountain Stage on Sunday at 1:15.

Keiki "Make & Take" Activities

- Make your own free souvenir to take home.
- For children of all ages.
- Parental supervision required.
- Available 10:00 am - 4:00 daily.

Paper leis for little ones

Polynesians make lei of flowers and other natural materials. They are worn for every occasion. Schoolchildren make paper flower lei for special occasions and holidays.

String paper flowers to make your own colorful lei. (please, one per person)

'Tapa' Stamping

Tapa is used as a gift in island ceremonies. The work taken to make it and the good mana of the one who created it testify to the significance of the gift and provide the recipient with honor.

Make your own piece of art by stamping tapa designs onto a note card. (please, one per person)

Mini poi balls

"Poi balls" with long strings are used in Maori women's dances and whirled and twirled in intricate patterns. The rhythmic tapping of the soft ball on short strings keeps time for the dancers.

Make your own mini poi balls from our instructions and use them as decorations. (please, one per person)

Come and Play Chongka!

Daily Times: 11:00 a.m.
1:00 p.m.
3:00 p.m.

Chongka is a board game with six or seven slots. Shells or stones are used as markers to fill in the slots. The object is to capture your opponent's markers.

This game was brought to the Mariana Archipelago by the Spaniards. It is still popular and is played by the Chamoru (indigenous) people of Guam and Saipan.

Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner

Sponsored by

Kanikapila

We've found the perfect place to hold what the Hawaiians call kanikapila: where folks sit and play music informally – jammin' style.

There's plenty of space to relax while you play, sing, dance or listen to the music.

This is strictly informal and drop-in style, and you never know who you'll find playing: beginners, 'old hands' and lots in-between.

Always relaxing, it's a lovely place to rest during a busy day at Festival.

Kanikapila hosts:

Kehau Chrisman, Danny Knapp, Ka'ono'i Kim, Kaimi Valdez, Kawika Wayne, Cecily Lewis, James Presbitero, Leimomilani (Shernelle) Copeland, Keoki Serano, and Robert Kent

Please see the on-site schedule for each host's time.

Ukulele "lessons" at Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner:

Don't know how to play uke? No problem!

Musicians from various music groups will be available to teach some simple chords and strumming techniques. Just drop by, grab a demonstration ukulele* and give it a try.

*There are a limited number of demonstration ukes available for those without an instrument.

About the Arizona Aloha Festival

We are an all-volunteer organization registered as a charitable non-profit with the IRS to provide awareness and education about

Pacific Islander culture and heritage.

Besides the weekend's festivities, we provide speakers or teachers for educational programs, gifts of learning materials to libraries, scholarships for cultural awareness and education programs, and support for community groups. The Kokua Award recognizes community members nominated for their leadership in the community.

The Festival is sustained from support from the community through grants and gifts, donations, sponsorships and sales at the event of souvenir t-shirts, soda and bottled water, and our raffle.

Our volunteers include our Board of Directors, the Planning Committee Team, performers on our stages and the hundreds of volunteers helping at the event.

Next year, the Arizona Aloha Festival will have its 20 year anniversary.

How shall we celebrate?

What shall we do?

20 years is pretty spectacular...

We could have a 'where were you when' contest and gather pictures from each year of Festival, going all the way back. We could make a scrapbook...or a quilt.

Or guest artists all weekend. Maybe a series of workshops held all over the state

We could find everyone who was at the first Festival, or everyone who's been every year. Make a video or photo montage. Collect favorite moments from over the years.

We could have a golf tournament, or a run, or maybe fireworks on Saturday night.

We could do a lot of things, but it will take volunteers to do them. Volunteers to work with the Planning Team, and to start looking at next year right after this year. Can you help?

Here's what YOU can do right NOW:

- Search your pictures for photos from years past and post them on our Facebook page or email them to festinfo@azalohafest.org.
- Collect family stories about Festival and share them with us.
- Tell us what Festival has meant or means to you, your feelings, hopes and experiences.
- Give us ideas of different ways to commemorate our 20 years.
- Ideas for more? Tell us!

Are YOU the person who wants to help commemorate the twenty years of Arizona Aloha Festival?

There's many ways to contact us to help:

- Send an email to:
anniversarytaskforce@azalohafest.org
- Call and give us your number:
602-697-1824

Arizona Aloha Festivals, Inc
Anniversary Task Force
PO Box 24237

Meetings

The Anniversary Task Force will meet in April and May to budget our ideas, take the summer off, and start again in September. Plans must be complete by the end of November.

Meetings are on Saturdays in Phoenix.

We welcome participation of volunteers from all over the state, and will use Skype or other electronic means for meeting participation if necessary.
