About the Arizona Aloha Festival

We are an all-volunteer organization registered as a charitable non-profit with the IRS to provide awareness and education about Hawaiian and other South Pacific Islander culture and heritage.

Besides the weekend's festivities, we provide speakers or teachers for educational programs, gifts of learning materials to libraries, scholarships for cultural awareness and education programs, and support for community groups. The Kokua Award recognizes community members nominated for their leadership in the community.

The Festival is sustained from support from the community through grants and gifts, donations, sponsorships and sales at the event of souvenir teeshirts, soda and bottled water, and our raffle.

Our volunteers include our Board of Directors, the Planning Committee Team, performers on our stages and the hundreds of volunteers helping at the event.

Guest Artist

Dr. Rona Halualani

Join her in Hale Mana'o

Dr. Rona T. Halualani earned her Ph.D. in Communication from Arizona State University in 1998 and has been an Assistant Professor in the Department of Communication Studies at San Jose State University since 1998.

One of her main interest areas is Hawaiian identity and mainland Hawaiian communities. Dr. Halualani has conducted interviews with over 300 mainland Hawaiians and is the author of In the Name of Hawaiians: Native Identities and Cultural Politics.

Join her in Hale Mana'o as she shares stories and thoughts on 'Belongingness' and the many ways mainland islanders keep and hold onto their island identities.

Sponsored by

- Make your own free souvenir to take home.
- For children of all ages.
- Parental supervision required.
- Available 10:00 am - 4:00 daily.

Paper leis for little ones

Polynesians make lei of flowers and other natural materials. They are worn for every occasion. Schoolchildren make paper flower lei for special occasions and holidays.

String paper flowers to make your own colorful lei. (please, one per person)

'Tapa' Stamping

Tapa is used as a gift in island ceremonies. The work taken to make it and the good mana of the one who created it testify to the significance of the gift and provide the recipient with honor.

Make your own piece of art by stamping tapa designs onto a note card. (please, one per person)

Mini poi balls

"Poi balls" with long strings are used in Maori women's dances and whirled and twirled in intricate patterns. The rhythmic tapping of the soft ball on short strings keeps time for the dancers.

Make your own mini poi balls from our instructions and use them as decorations. (please, one per person)

Come and Play Chongka!

Daily Times: 11:00 a.m.
1:00 p.m.
3:00 p.m.

Chongka is a board game with six or seven slots. Shells or stones are used as markers to fill in the slots. The object is to capture your opponent's markers.

This game was brought to the Mariana Archipelago by the Spaniards. It is still popular and is played by the Chamoru (indigenous) people of Guam and Saipan.

Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner

Sponsored by

Kanikapila

We've found the perfect place to hold what the Hawaiians call kanikapila: where folks sit and play music informally – jammin' style.

There's plenty of space to relax while you play, sing, dance or listen to the music.

This is strictly informal and drop-in style, and you never know who you'll find playing: beginners, 'old hands' and lots in-between.

Always relaxing, it's a lovely place to rest during a busy day at Festival.

Kanikapila hosts:

Patrick Landeza, Kehau Chrisman, Danny Knapp, Ka'ono'i Kim, Leina'ala Ibarra, Mark James, Dezi Martin, Kaimi Valdez, Tim Punahale Waters, Joe Souza, Lucky Watson, and Rudy Dolfo.

Please see the on-site schedule for each host's time.

Ukulele "lessons" at Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner:

Don't know how to play uke? No problem!

Musicians from various music groups will be available to teach some simple chords and strumming techniques. Just drop by, grab a demonstration *ukulele and give it a try.

*There are a limited number of demonstration ukes available for those without an instrument.

To all that help to make this Festival outstanding:

To our SPONSORS, SUPPORTERS and DONORS:

Hawaiian Airlines for sponsoring the Lakeside Stage, and to their Arizona staff.

Starwood Hotels and Resorts and Kahala Corporation for teaming up to sponsor the Mountain Stage.

Office of Hawaiian Affairs for their sponsorship of our Ohana Village.

Arizona Chapter of AREEA for their sponsorship of our Keiki Activities.

Sam Ash Music for their sponsorship of Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Corner.

Downtown Tempe Community for their support of our volunteers.

The Arizona Arts Commission, and the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) for support of our cultural arts instruction through Hale Mana'o and outreach activities.

Lowe's stores for support for our stage decorations.

Precision Die Cutting & Embossing for cutting paper flowers for leis and Kaplan Dies for creating the die to cut them.

The City of Tempe for believing in us.

The MIM (Musical Instrument Museum) for inviting us to share information about the Festival at their Hawaiian Music Series.

To more than 200 on-site volunteers, including:

Girl Scout Troup 724 and the other groups we weren't able to list due to print deadlines...and all the other families, clubs, church groups and individuals that give their time, talents, smiles and hard work so freely.

(we apologize for any omissions due to our early print deadline)
