

SATURDAY, MARCH 16

- 10:30 Experience Kajukenbo
Bautista Kajukenbo
Experience the power of Kajukenbo, a dynamic blend of martial arts that builds strength, discipline, and respect.
- 11:30 Hawaiian Weaponry
Kaimiloa Chrisman, MD
In Polynesia, Hawaiians had the most diverse weaponry, and even used throwing clubs and daggers.
- 12:30 Make an 'Uli'uli
Hannah Brisso, Musical Instrument Museum
Learn about the 'Uli'uli, a rattle used in Hawaiian hula dancing. Make an 'Uli'uli to take home!
- 1:30 Ki Ho'alu, Slack Key Guitar
Moon Kahele
Learn the history of Ki Ho'alu, its tunings, and information about master artists of this artform.
- 2:30 Learn how to string a flower lei
Taught by: Halau Hula Napuaokalei'ilima
Learn to make a single strand flower lei using the stringing method. Create your own orchid flower lei for your wrist.
Supplies donated by Hawaii Flower Lei
- 3:30 Kanikapila
Bring your own Uke!
It's an ukulele jam session for all who want to join in and play.

Support our Sponsors...

With their help, we are able to support the whole event.

They help us provide quality equipment (like stages), a clean facility, security services, and an enjoyable experience for you!

Please support our sponsors!
Visit them and say Mahalo! for being here...

SUNDAY, MARCH 17

- 10:30 'Ori Tahiti
Kumu Ka'imi Mathews-Valdez
Let's 'Ori Tahiti ! (dance Tahitian) Learn to move your hips to the quick-paced rhythm and drum beats of the French Polynesian islands.
- 11:30 The origins of Hula and its development
Kehau Chrisman
The hula is so much more than just a pretty dance form. Learn its deep history in Hawaiian culture.
- 12:30 Storytime with Moana
Maile Pai
Join Moana to learn about her seafaring adventures, and maybe sing a song or two!
- 1:30 Legends of the Turtle and Shark
Brent Malolo
Come learn about the Samoan legends of the turtle (Laumei) and shark (Malie). Many versions of this legend are rooted in Samoa and American Samoa with a popular song telling its story.
- 2:30 Samoa Choir
Laupanana Iaulualo & Friends
Spend your Sunday afternoon listening to the harmonies of old songs and traditional hymns sung in the Samoan language.

Wanna win a trip to Maui?

Or get your own Festival limited-edition teeshirt?

These smiling volunteers can help you with both!
FIND THEM AT TICKETS AND TEES!

They know these sales help keep the Festival FREE for all to enjoy!